

Cogent Midstream's Stephen Callender selected as Forty Under 40 Honoree

DALLAS – November 1, 2019 – Cogent Midstream, LLC (“Cogent”) is pleased to announce that Vice President of Finance Stephen Callender is a Hart Energy Forty Under 40 honoree. The Forty Under 40 program honors individuals who excel in entrepreneurial leadership and problem-solving and further the goals of their organization and the industry through their initiative, intelligence and persistence.

“Stephen outshines many seasoned, experienced midstream finance professionals,” said Cogent Midstream CEO Dennis McCanless. “His ability to understand banking, investment and how to create value for our customers and our investors has been invaluable to Cogent Midstream. I have no doubt that he will step into a CFO role in the future, and much sooner than most. His future is very bright.”

Mr. Callender began his career in 2013 as an investment banking analyst at Performance Trust Capital Partners. He joined Cogent Midstream as a corporate finance associate and became its vice president of finance in August 2018. Mr. Callender earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in finance from Texas A&M University. His Forty Under 40 profile and video interview are available here.

Mr. Callender attributes his rapid success to an entrepreneurial spirit and can-do attitude. He is known as an outside-the-box thinker and a creative problem solver. “I think the mentality of the finance department at Cogent is no task is off limits or out of our wheelhouse,” he said. “If there’s an opportunity to make a process or project better, we do our best to take that opportunity.”
